260 pages
$22.95

For too long The Iliad has been hijacked by unreadable writers. It began with Homer as a campfire tale and here it is, restored to life. You’ll be amazed at how funny, raw and terrifying this doomed world of war really is.

The War Nerd, Gary Brecher, is the nom de guerre of John Dolan, a poet, novelist, essayist and former academic. Dolan now works with Mark Ames (of eXile fame) to produce the Radio War Nerd weekly podcast on military matters.

UNDER AN IONIZED SKY
From Chemtrails to Space Fence Lockdown

Elana Freeland
Introduction by Clifford Carnicom
978-1-62731-053-6
Trade Paper
6 x 9
176 pages
$19.95

Under an Ionized Sky: From Chemtrails to Space Fence Lockdown probes the saga of global agendas hiding behind “climate change” misinformation. Freeland explores the nefarious motivations and terrifying implications of collusive international cabals who champion the modern methods of human enslavement. From chemical ionization to antimatter to the Internet of Things, a future of full spectrum dominance is imminent.

THE MUDD CLUB

Richard Boch

Trade Paper
7 x 10
320 pages
$24.95

The Mudd Club was a loud, dirty dream with a radical aesthetic born of Punk, No Wave and the celebrity-infused Downtown and East Village art, performance and music scene. There was nothing like it and author Richard Boch, who was its doorman during much of its four and a half year run, saw and experienced all of it.

Welcome to Liartown! A place where reality is subverted and skewered with a hilarious combination of comedic genius and graphic design wizardry. There’s an Apple Cabin Foods on every corner, and your favorite Corduroy Porn mags are always in stock. Liartown is a convulsively funny compendium of Sean Tejaratchi’s brilliant takedown of popular culture and societal trends.

Sean has designed books for Feral House and others, created props for documentary and film, written for television, and currently writes for A Prairie Home Companion.

GRANDPA’S GHOST STORIES
James Flora
Introduction by Irwin Chusid
ISBN TK
Hardcover
7½ × 10
34 pages
$17.99
James Flora’s fantastically illustrated books captivated kids throughout the 1960’s and ’70’s, so much so that secondhand copies sell for exorbitant sums. Grandpa’s Ghost Stories is the most sought after title, and Feral House is pleased to announce the first reprint since its original publication in 1978. These ghoulish and amusing stories and wildly inventive illustrations will keep readers shivering.

ROSE CITY VICE
Portland in the ’70s—Dirty Cops and Dirty Robbers
Phil Stanford
978-1-62731-044-4
Trade Paper
6 × 9
104 pages
$12.95
The City of Roses, as natives of Portland, Oregon like to call it, has a long and honorable history of crime and corruption, starting as far back as the post-Civil War frontier days, leading into the mobster-infused decades of the twentieth century when prohibition, prostitution, gambling, and hard drugs besieged the town.

Rose City Vice reveals a city where the cops are putting drugs back on the street, maybe even committing murder. The city council is high on coke, and the mayor is carrying on a clandestine sexual relationship with 13-year-old schoolgirl while under surveillance by the vice squad. It’s 1970’s Portland and blackmail is in the air.
ANNE BONNY THE INFAMOUS FEMALE PIRATE

Anne Bonny, America’s most famous female pirate, stuff of myth and legend — a Hollywood inspiration centuries after her death. After joining Captain John “Calico Jack” Rackham's crew in the Bahamas, she began a dangerous life sailing and swashbuckling the Caribbean's waters. Anne narrowly avoided the hangman’s noose after the capture of her ship off the coast of Jamaica.

REVIVAL
Resurrecting the Process Church of the Final Judgment

Revival seems to be fiction, yet it’s based on fact and explores the implications of the internet, and the disintegration of conventional faiths. As reported in the author’s anthropological study, Satan's Power, the Process was polytheistic, asserting the union of Jehovah with Lucifer, and the unity of Christ with Satan. Each Process member was a fragment of a god, with a corresponding personality trait: Jehovah = Discipline, Lucifer = Liberation, Christ = Unification, Satan = Separation.

Before the first page of this book, the computer magician who resurrected the Process Church was murdered. Was this man Christ?

THE MUHAMMAD CODE
How a Desert Prophet Brought You ISIS, al Qaeda, and Boko Haram

Osama bin Laden called Muhammad “a Prophet of Conquest.” And Pakistan’s P.U.S.F. brags that under Muhammad’s battlefield leadership that Islam spread on an average of 317 square miles per day! Muhammad’s life was that of a militant, his favorite tools of war, deception and terror. Muhammad built the very template followed by ISIS, al Qaeda, and Boko Haram.

“It's a terrifying book—like a horror novel. It's the best book I've read on Islam... the most elegantly written and reaches into the reader at an emotionally engaging level, inspiring them to take action.”
— David Swindle, lifestyle editor, PJ Media
Death Confetti: Pickers, Punks, and Transit Ghosts in Portland, Oregon

Jennifer Robin

Trade Paper
7 × 10
248 pages
$25.00

The Krampus, a folkloric devil associated with St. Nicholas in Alpine Austria and Germany, has been embraced by the American counter-culture and is lately skewing mainstream. The Christmas he seems to embody is ironically closer to an ancient understanding of the holiday as a perilous, haunted season. In the Krampus world, witches rule Christmas, and saints can sometimes kill.
MUHAMMAD ALI
The Greatest Coloring Book of All Time
Various Artists
Introduction by Darius James

Trade Paper
8½ × 11
$15.95

As Darius James says of Ali: “Just as he was for many Americans, Muhammad Ali’s appearance on the cultural landscape was a turning point in my life. The moment he proclaimed ‘I am the greatest,’ he demonstrated it was possible to speak truth to power. This is a quality Ali reflected throughout his life.”

More than just black line drawings to be colored in, each page is a stand-alone work of art. The images reflect a diversity of artist styles and inspiration.

Contributing artists include: Jim Blanchard, John Jennings, Chris Crites, Tony Millionaire, Mica O’Herlihy, and many more.

$39.95

Mel Gordon’s companion volume to his highly praised, bestselling pictorial history, Voluptuous Panic: The Erotic World of Weimar Berlin. You’ll see how sex and horror were transformed by the French aesthetic before, during, and after Paris was invaded and maintained by the Third Reich.

“During World War II, most of the French women were both resisters and collaborators. They claimed their faith in freedom and DeGaulle, while earning food tickets in German beds. With great talent, Mel Gordon describes the complexity of the French woman in Horizontal Collaboration.”

— Christophe Bourseiller, author of Guide de l’autre France

When it came to exploring American nightmares, Mortensen was unrivalled. “Mortensen was the first US visual artist to focus on the grotesque as a viable and important subject matter,” says Larry Lytle, co-author of American Grotesque, a new book that celebrates Mortensen’s esoteric and erotic images.

“The grotesque had been an important part of European art for a long time but, aside from in American literature and cinema, no-one who was recognized as a fine artist investigated the subject as thoroughly as William Mortensen.” — Bizarre Magazine

No other artist working in mid-century pulp fiction created work as twisted as Lee Brown Coye. His eerie cover art and illustrations graced many Arkham House books, most notably those by H.P. Lovecraft. By the 1970s, after surviving a life-threatening illness, Coye would outdo himself, creating lurid illustrations exclusive to rare privately published books and fanzines. With nearly one hundred gloriously rendered images, Pulp Macabre showcases Coye’s final and darkest era.

ART CHANTRY SPEAKS
A Heretic's History of 20th Century Graphic Design

Art Chantry
Edited by Monica René Rochester
978-1-62731-009-3
6 × 9
264 pages
$24.95

They say Art Chantry created the visual semantics of "grunge rock" with his record covers, show posters, and rock magazine design. Chantry's work has been exhibited at fine institutions like the Seattle Art Museum, MOMA, the Smithsonian, and the Louvre. But don't call Chantry an "artist," as he prefers to be described as a "cultural propagandist of the lowest order" or simply a "mindfucker for hire."

This book collects Chantry's musings on the history of the unexplored and unacknowledged avatars of 20th century graphic design.

THE GATES OF JANUS
Serial Killing and its Analysis by the Moors Murderer

Ian Brady

Ian Brady and Myra Hindley's murder of children in the 1960s was one of the most appalling series of crimes ever committed in England, and remains almost daily fixated upon by the British tabloid press. In The Gates of Janus, Ian Brady himself allows us a glimpse into the mind of a murderer as he analyzes a dozen other serial crimes and killers. This EXPANDED EDITION has two hundred pages of additional material from Ian Brady, the late Colin Wilson, and Peter Sotos.
NEIGHBORS FROM HELL

Jan Frel and John Dolan
Illustrated by Taras Kharechko
978-1-62731-012-3
8 × 10
24 pages
$14.95

It's bedtime, and Daniel is tired of the same old Dr. Seuss. He wants his dad to tell him about real monsters. Hesitating a bit, Dan's dad describes the predatory and callous occupations of his neighbors, from reality TV star, to slumlord, to mortgage loan officer, concluding with a tragic revelation about Dan and his dad's economic fate.

CITIZEN KEANE
The Big Lies Behind the Big Eyes

Adam Parfrey and Cletus Nelson
978-1-936239-95-5
6 × 9
185 pages
$18.95

The surreal saga of the famous kitsch artists, the Keanes, as seen in Tim Burton's film Big Eyes. When Adam Parfrey tracked down Walter Keane—the credited artist of the weepy waifs, for a San Diego Reader cover story in 1992—he discovered some disturbing facts. Decades of lawsuits and countersuits revealed the reality that Keane was more of a con man than an artist, and that he forced his wife Margaret to sign his name to her own paintings. As a result, those weepy waifs may not have been as capricious an invention as they seemed.

The influence of fraternal brotherhoods on this country is vast and hidden in plain view. Not long ago, as many as one-third of America belonged to a secret society. This expansive visual guidebook unveils the strangest sort of American history accessed from personal scrapbooks, snapshots, news service photos, magazines, internal documents… Here’s a way of “coming to grip” with the strange phenomenon of fraternal organizations in America, both yesteryear and today.

“A curiously open and frank confession of cult life that avoids an easy formula… Aided by accounts from other members…and over a hundred pages of images, clippings, and samples of The Process’ lengthy magazine and editorial history, Love, Sex, Fear, Death leaves no stone unturned.”

—Tina Estlin Page, chuckpalahniuk.net

Sterling Silver Process Church Rings

“Jack Huddleston, a detective with the Los Angeles police department, collected together a scrapbook of oddities and gruesome moments from his years working for the force. Huddleston’s scrapbook spans Southern California in its noir heyday, circa 1925–1945, the time when the Black Dahlia killer and Winnie Ruth Judd were perpetrating their savage crimes.”

— GQ Magazine
In 2013, Republican "hero" David Stein made international headlines when he was unmasked as David Cole, the notorious Jewish Holocaust denier who made an entirely different set of headlines in the 1990s with his videos from within the gates of Auschwitz and his appearances on shows like 60 Minutes and Donahue. Condemned by those who had previously lauded him, Cole was left with nothing but his story. And here he tells it, warts and all, including the first-ever exposé of the secretive Hollywood far-right underground, "Friends of Abe."

— Guardian Liberty Voice

"Stanford's book, White House Call Girl: The Real Watergate Story, is a bold exploration into why the burglary took place. It throws light on a Washington call girl operation, claiming it was the real reason behind the Watergate break-in. The story came together for the true crime author and former Oregonian columnist when he was given the "little black book" of mob operative, ex-stripper and Washington madam Erika "Heidi" Rikan. It shows her astounding array of connections; from the criminal underworld to football players to scores of powerful and sleazy politicians in Washington D.C."

— Guardian Liberty Voice

Jamie Gillis appeared in over one hundred films, and as such was a primary performer in pornography's "Golden Age." Gillis is also known for inventing the "Gonzo" genre of pornography, played out in the film Boogie Nights by Burt Reynolds' character. Pure Filth appears as Peter Sotos' edited transcripts of the films Jamie produced during these early years of radical and highly personal pornography. Completed just before his death in February 2010, Gillis contributed an introduction to each transcript to shed light on his ideas and plans, as well as anecdotal details and personal commentary.
YOU CAN'T WIN
Jack Black
Foreword by William S. Burroughs
Biographical Material by Donald Kennison
978-1-936239-61-0
6 × 9
335 pages
$17.95

You Can't Win, the beloved memoir of real lowdown Americana by criminal hobo Jack Black, was first published in 1926, then reprinted in 1988 by Adam Parfrey's Amok Press, featuring an introduction by William S. Burroughs.

After its Amok Press edition went out of print, You Can't Win found popularity once again with the AK Press edition. Feral House's new version takes this classic American narrative much further, including two remarkable nonfiction articles by Jack Black written for Harper's Magazine in the 1920s. Extraordinary illustrations by Joe Coleman and new biographical revelations by Donald Kennison round out the new edition.

BLOOD BENEATH MY FEET
The Journey of a Southern Death Investigator
Joseph S. Morgan
978-1-936239-33-7
5½ × 8½
220 pages
$18.95

Have you ever been locked in a cooler with piles of decomposing humans for so long that you had to shave the hair off your body to get rid of the smell? Joseph Scott Morgan did. Have you ever lit a Marlboro from the ignited gas of a bloated dead man's belly? Joseph Morgan has. Were you named after a murder victim? Joseph Scott Morgan was.

This isn't Hollywood fantasy—these are the desperate backdoor sagas of the “new South.” No hot blondes here, just maggots, grief, and the truth about forensics and death investigation.

THE CARNIVALS OF LIFE AND DEATH
James Shelby Downard
1-932595-15-5
6 × 9
280 pages
$14.95

"The most absurd, the most incredible, the most ridiculous Illuminati theory of them all."
— Robert Anton Wilson

James Shelby Downard may be the most controversial conspiracy theorist of the 20th century. In “King-Kill 33°,” Downard notoriously laid out the involvement of Freemasonry in the assassination of President Kennedy. Even Marilyn Manson wrote a song based on Downard's essay.

The Carnivals of Life and Death is Downard's autobiographical account of his early years in the deep South, when Ku Klux Klanners and Freemasons, including President Franklin Roosevelt, pulled him into many strange and violent affairs.
As a child prodigy, Harley Flanagan played drums for bands at Max’s Kansas City and CBGBs, was taught to play bass by the famed Bad Brains, and drank with the notorious Lemmy of Motörhead. Most (in)famously, Harley became a member of the hardcore band the Cro-Mags, and disputes accusations of stabbing two band members.

"This book may well be the Bible of Yé-Yé.”
—Boyd Rice
Most know about Hardcore Punk music of 1980s Los Angeles, but little is known about LA's homicidal punk rock gangs. Damaged, impressionable, teenage Frank transforms into a monster; learning to stab, shoot, and kill across the city in a true life Clockwork Orange. Period photos. Cover illustrations by Raymond Pettibon.

“Addictively readable and keeps pace with best records of the genre.”
— Michael Nuremberg, Huffington Post

The 2003 edition of Lords of Chaos is revised and expanded, adding fifty new pages, detailing outbreaks of Black Metal crime in Finland, Germany and the US; and includes the secret history of occult Rock, a new section on Varg Vikernes' promulgation of bizarre Aryan UFO theories, and material on the career of Hendrik Mobus, an international neo-Nazi fugitive. This award-winning exposé features hundreds of rare photos and exclusive interrogations with priests, police officers, Satanists, and leaders of demonic bands who believe the greater evil spawns the greatest glory.

An epic tome exploring the history and development of black metal from its beginnings in the early 1980s to the present day. Featuring dozens of interviews with and material from the most significant protagonists, integral bands, iconic photographers and hangers-on of the time. The book also includes a wealth of previously unpublished images.

Black Metal: Evolution of the Cult examines the artistic, musical, and spiritual development of this controversial genre. Included are interviews with nearly every contributor to the genre.
There was a time—not so long ago—when pomp and spandex dominated MTV and pop radio playlists. American Hair Metal celebrates this orgy of flamboyance, androgyny and animal magnetism, of big-haired alpha males and the beautiful women who surrounded them.

Joe Petagno’s iconographic covers for the hard rock band, Motörhead, are only a small part of his prolific painting career.

"Written with the right balance of affection and cheek, this is an entertaining look at campy art.” — Mojo
Born to Mexican-born and American-naturalized parents, Alicia Armendariz migrated a few miles west to participate in the free-range birth of the 1970s punk movement. Alicia adopted the punk name Alice Bag, and became lead singer for The Bags, early punk visionaries who starred in Penelope Spheeris' documentary The Decline of Western Civilization. Here is a life of many crossed boundaries, from East L.A.'s musica ranchera to Hollywood's punk rock; from a violent male-dominated family to female-dominated transgressive rock bands.

This revised and expanded Second Edition of Steven Blush's "definitive treatment of Hardcore Punk" (LA Times) contains hundreds of new bands, 30 new interviews, flyers, a new chapter and a new art gallery with over 125 new rare photos and images.
CHEMTRAILS, HAARP, AND THE FULL SPECTRUM DOMINANCE OF PLANET EARTH

Elana Freeland
978-1-936239-83-1
6 x 9
272 pages
$21.95

Author Elana Freeland writes: “While mainstream newscasters wring their hands over ‘global warming’ and ‘climate change,’ ionospheric heaters torque the chemtrails and unnaturally heat the planet in endless military experiments. Many technical secrets of this conspiracy are in public sources but we do not know how to interpret them, given that our authority figures and ‘experts,’ in one way or another, have been bought off or silenced. We find ourselves in an upside-down world in which government and industry profit from creating disasters and running biological ‘trial experiments’ on the people whose tax dollars feed their children.”

JFK & UFO
Military-Industrial Conspiracy and Cover-Up from Maury Island to Dallas

Kenn Thomas
978-1-936239-06-1
6 x 9
271 pages
$17.95

Here’s a little-known aspect of modern parapolitical history that interconnects the lingering mysteries of America’s most notorious assassination and its weird ufological subculture. It examines the denizens of the bizarre, semi-spook underground reflecting a stranger and more true history than offered by the mainstream.

CAUGHT IN THE CROSSFIRE
Kerry Thornley, Oswald and the Garrison Investigation

Adam Gorightly
978-1-936239-99-3
6 x 9
253 Pages
$18.95

The strange saga of Lee Harvey Oswald’s Marine Corps pal Kerry Thornley, and his connections to the JFK assassination conspiracy. During the late 1950s, Thornley became friends with Lee Harvey Oswald when the two served together in the Marines, and was actually writing a novel based on Oswald three years before John F. Kennedy’s assassination. These connections would later cause New Orleans district attorney Jim Garrison to suspect that Thornley was one of the notorious Oswald doubles and a part of a JFK assassination plot.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE PROVOCATEUR
The Parallel Lives of JFK and Lee Harvey Oswald

Alex Cox
978-1-936239-58-0
5½ x 8½
316 pages
$16.95

The Kennedy assassination saga has obsessed filmmaker Alex Cox (Repo Man, Sid & Nancy) for most of his life. The President and The Provocateur is Cox’s informed meditation on the conspiratorial tale, and as such is an imaginative rendering of the parallel structures of the lives of John F. Kennedy and Lee Harvey Oswald.

“In picking apart the most infamous photos of Lee Harvey Oswald, the man behind Repo Man and Walker is quick to point up some of the worst special effects this side of Plan 9 From Outer Space. — Sabotage Times
SEVERAL WAYS TO DIE IN MEXICO CITY
Kurt Hollander
978-1-936239-48-1
6 × 9
300 pages
$22.95
Hollander's visual and textual extravaganza, Several Ways to Die in Mexico City, provides a perspective of this extraordinary city that could only have been caught by an observant outsider who lived in all its nooks and crannies for over two decades. Crammed with caustic but fair observations of the city's history, food, cults, drugs, and buildings, Hollander proves that he can love a city and culture that also kills its inhabitants softly. The book contains dozens of extraordinary photographs.

Fascinating research from the woman who inspired an entire generation of anti-Fascist conspiratorial investigations. The Essential Mae Brussell is a compilation of chilling essays and radio transcripts by the seminal American anti-fascist researcher, famously supported by John Lennon and Yoko Ono.

YOU WILL DIE
The Burden of Modern Taboos
Robert Arthur
978-1-936239-43-6
6 × 9
540 pages
$22.95
Taboos, by definition, are off-limit topics. As a book that covers nasal mucus, excrement, sex, and drugs, You Will Die is inherently sensational and author Robert Arthur takes advantage of that by packing the pages with provocative information and illustrations, but unlike other such books, You Will Die tackles serious issues.

"A highly entertaining look at social lies and phobias, and the way the worst sort of laws are created and empowered. Unusual and fascinating…"

SHELLEY UNBOUND
Discovering Frankenstein's True Creator
Scott D. de Hart
Foreword by Joseph P. Farrell
978-1-936239-60-3
5½ × 8½
183 pages
$16.95
Scott D. de Hart's fascinating investigation into Frankenstein and the lives of Mary Wollstonecraft and Percy Shelley results in an inconvenient truth regarding what we have long believed to be a great early example of the feminist canon.

"The beauty of the book is that it is not dry academic literary criticism; it's a biographical study, literary criticism, and even an exploration of esoteric and alchemical themes that inform a major work of English literature, a work that, when the Mary Shelley mythology is stripped away from it, and its true author restored and his motivations known, reveals itself to be a prophetic work about man's coming of age in an era of science, and with the ever-present moral choices and dilemmas it presents."
—Giza Death Star
The Secret Life of a Satanist steps behind the curtain with the founder and High Priest of the Church of Satan. After the original publication of this biography in 1990, LaVey and Blanche Barton fought through the Satanic Panic together, and guided the Church for another seven years. This revised edition adds a dozen new and never-before-seen images.

The late Anton Szandor LaVey, founder of the Church of Satan, may be the most notoriously familiar for his Satanic Bible, but The Satanic Witch best reflects the discoveries Anton made in his younger days working the carny shows and Mitt Camps. This is undiluted Gypsy lore regarding the forbidden knowledge of seduction and manipulation. The Satanic Witch is not designed for Barbie Dolls, but women cunning and crafty enough to employ the workable formulas within, which instantly surpass the entire catalogue of self-help tomes and New Age idiocies.

At last, the collected wisdom, humor, and dark observations by the founder of the Church of Satan. The Devil’s Notebook is the first original collection of LaVey’s writings to be published in two decades. The High Priest speculates on such topics as nonconformity, occult faddism, erotic politics, the “Goodguy badge,” demoralization and the construction of artificial human companions. Like P.T. Barnum, Ben Hecht and H.L. Mencken before him, LaVey zeroes in on humankind’s limitless capacity for self-deceit and self-denial. Included are instructions for the creation of what LaVey terms “total environments,” or places of magical evocation, where the enlightened may escape the deleterious effects of contemporary existence.

Anton Szandor LaVey, notorious founder of the Church of Satan, died on October 29, 1997, days after completing his final contribution to Satan Speaks! Satan Speaks! collects together sixty unorthodox, paradoxical and humorous essays by the most misunderstood man in America. Marilyn Manson pays tribute to Anton LaVey in his forward, and Blanche Barton, mother of Xerxes Satan LaVey, provides a poignant introduction.
A tour de force of darkness, the Encyclopaedia of Hell is an “invasion manual” for Earth written by Lord Satan for his invading hordes of Demons, complete with hundreds of unpleasant illustrations, diagrams and a comprehensive and utterly repulsive Dictionary of Earth Terms.

Scribe Martin Olson’s savage wit provides the firepower for a preposterous literary feat unaccomplished since Mark Twain passed—channeling the real voice of Satan.

The limited signed cloth edition of Thee Psychick Bible quickly sold out, creating demand for this Smyth-sewn paperback edition with flaps and ribbon. According to author Genesis Breyer-P-Orridge, “This is the most profound new manual on practical magick, taking it from its Crowleyan empowerment of the Individual to a next level of realization to evolve our species.”

Eerie Publications’ horror magazines brought blood and bad taste to America’s newsstands from 1965 through 1975. These lowbrow abominations influenced a generation of artists. One of them, Stephen R. Bissette (Swamp Thing), provides the introduction for this volume.

In James Carr and Archana Kumar’s serial comic, Adolf Hitler metamorphoses into a contemporary middle class kid who, like Mr. Hitler himself, fetishizes the authentic and creates a new sort of conformism.

An international hit.

The lurid cover art of Mexican pulp novels is a pop culture revelation. Never before seen in an English or even Spanish-language collection are the often surreal and psychedelic images of extraterrestrials, robots, dinosaurs, dastardly killers, Zorro, Santo, and many other icons from stories involving suspense, mystery, romance and the supernatural.

“A gasp-inducing collection of (really, truly) insane illustrations... on the verge of true capital-S Surrealism through the deadpan earnestness of their rendering.” — Daniel Clowes
BOOKS BY JOHN ZERZAN

WHY HOPE? The Stand Against Civilization

The infamous eco-anarchist John Zerzan whose books have resulted in recent interviews by Vice and Believer magazines, checks in with further provocative articles about the chaotic results of civilization and technology.

"Whenever I think of Alan Turing, I think about the Apple logo," began John Zerzan. "The logo is an apple with a bite out of it. Turing smeared cyanide on an apple and bit into it after being persecuted by the government for being gay. A bite from an apple is also associated with our expulsion from the Garden of Eden. I don't think that's quite the message they're trying to convey, but there it is." —John Zerzan in Vice Magazine

FUTURE PRIMITIVE REVISITED

"Future Primitive," the core innovative essay of Future Primitive Revisited, has been out of print for years. This new edition is updated with never-before-printed essays that speak to a youthful political movement and influential writers such as Derrick Jensen and Paul Theroux.

TWILIGHT OF THE MACHINES

The mentor of the green anarchist and neo-primitive movements confronts civilization, mass society, modernity and technoculture.

As Zerzan writes, "These dire times may yet reveal invigorating new vistas of thought and action. When everything is at stake, all must be confronted and superseded."

AGAINST CIVILIZATION

This extraordinary anthology about "the pathology of civilization" offers insight into how progress and technology have led to emptiness and alienation.

"Read it and you will never think of civilization in the same way again." —Kirkpatrick Sale

RUNNING ON EMPTINESS

John Zerzan, anarcho-primitivist philosopher, ideological friend to Ted Kaczynski, and mentor to the anti-Globalist anarchists who set the world aflame in Seattle and Europe, is back with Running on Emptiness: The Pathology of Civilization.
INVESTIGATIONS, JOSEPH P. FARRELL
TRANSHUMANISM, A GRIMOIRE OF ALCHEMICAL AGENDAS

with
Dr. Scott D. de Hart
978-1-936239-44-3
6 x 9
350 pages
$19.95

This book investigates what may become of human civilization, who is setting the agenda for a trans-humanistic civilization, and why. Dr.s’ Joseph P. Farrell and Scott D. de Hart lift the veil from the macabre transhumanistic monster being assembled and exposes the hidden history and agenda that has set humanity on a collision course for the Apocalypse.

GENES, GIANTS, MONSTERS AND MEN
The Surviving Elites of the Cosmic War and Their Hidden Agenda

978-1-936239-08-5
6 x 9
304 pages
$19.95

Consider the possibility that the evolutionary scientific explanation for mankind has ignored critical facts that are buried deep within the fossils and mankind’s DNA. Consider the possibility that the religious stories that have often been the core basis for mankind’s understanding of where it belongs in the history of creation may actually reveal a planet occupied with tyrannical giants and an elite highly intelligent race bent on genetic mutation.

BABYLON’S BANKSTERS
The Alchemy of Deep Physics, High Finance and Ancient Religion

978-1-932595-79-6
6 x 9
304 pages
$19.95

An international class of gangster bankers is attempting to enslave mankind, usurping the money powers of the state, and suppressing development of alternative physics and energy technologies. Dr. Joseph P. Farrell reveals how this has been done.

PHILOSOPHER’S STONE
Alchemy and the Secret Research for Exotic Matter

978-1932595406
6 x 9
349 pages
$17.95

Investigates little-known American, Soviet and Nazi research into alchemy and the space sciences, The Philosopher’s Stone traces out alchemy’s view of an information-creating physical medium, and shows how this idea is related to the phenomenon of high-spin rotation and the unusual properties in matter that it induces.

The Showbiz Manipulations of the NFL, MLB, NHL and NASCAR

Brian Tuohy
978-1-932595-81-9
5½ × 8½
320 pages
$16.95

"With The Fix Is In, Brian Tuohy makes a compelling, fact-based argument that not everything in the sports world is as it seems—that behind the visceral thrills and feel-good hype lies a potentially dark underworld of profit motives, conflicting interests and perhaps rigged competitions, in which nothing occurs by happy accident."
— Patrick Hruby, ESPN.com

5½ × 8½
385 pages
$18.95

A cornucopia of information verified by FBI investigations, regarding corruption in professional sports.

"Coked-up Knicks players fixed games as a favor to their drug dealer — who bet big bucks against the anemic New York squad, FBI informants claimed during the 1981-82 season. The feds probed whether three Knicks, reportedly 'heavy users of cocaine,' and their supplier, 'one of the largest dealers on the East Coast,' shaved points, according to FBI documents cited in Brian Tuohy's book, "Larceny Games: Sports Gambling, Game Fixing and the FBI." —NY Post

978-0-922915-97-2
5¼ × 8½
239 pages
$16.95

In his short 37 years, John Whiteside “Jack” Parsons embodied at least several different roles in one tormented but glorious life.
By day, Parsons’ unorthodox genius created a solid rocket fuel that helped the Allies win World War II and NASA send spacecraft to the moon. Co-founder of Jet Propulsion Laboratory and the Aerojet Corporation, a lunar crater was named after Parsons. By night, Jack called himself The Antichrist when he performed Aleister Crowley’s Thelemic rituals to create a new sort of human being that would finally destroy Christianity.

by America’s Most Decorated General
Smedley D. Butler

5¼ × 8¼
84 pages
$9.95

War is a racket. It always has been. It is possibly the oldest, easily the most profitable, surely the most vicious. It is the only one international in scope. It is the only one in which the profits are reckoned in dollars and the losses in lives. A racket is best described, I believe, as something that is not what it seems to the majority of the people. Only a small “inside” group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few, at the expense of the very many. Out of war a few people make huge fortunes. —From War is a Racket

Aleister Crowley, British Intelligence and the Occult

Richard B. Spence

978-1-932595-33-8

6 × 9

300 pages

$22.95

The Great Beast’s mysterious efforts for British Intelligence is finally revealed after unearthing documents from the U.S., U.K., France, Russia, and Italy.

ALEISTER CROWLEY AND THE OUIJA BOARD

J. Edward Cornelius

1-932595-10-4

5¼ × 8½

172 pages

$16.95

The greatest ceremonial magician of the twentieth century, Aleister Crowley advocated the Ouija board’s use as an occult tool. He strongly believed that the board utilizes the same principles that were practiced by the famed Elizabethan magician John Dee, who used a crystal ball as a means of “skrying,” or seeing into the invisible realms. This book shows how anyone, with the proper knowledge, can communicate effectively with invisible beings through a Ouija board.

HOLLYWOOD’S HELLFIRE CLUB

They made fans go crazy and censors apoplectic, spent fortunes faster than they made them, forged Rembrandts and hung them in major museums, went on trial for committing statutory rape with necrophiliac teenage girls, reinterpreted Hamlet as an incestuous mama’s boy, and swilled immeasurable quantities of spirits during week-long parties on wobbly yachts. Includes remarkable material on Ben Hecht, Gene Fowler, Sadakichi Hartmann, John Decker, John Carradine, Thomas Mitchell, Roland Young, Anthony Quinn and Alan Mowbray.
COVERT WAR ON ROCK
What You Don’t Know About the Deaths of Jim Morrison, Tupac Shakur, Michael Hutchinson, Brian Jones, Jimi Hendrix, Phil Ochs, Bob Marley, Peter Tosh, John Lennon, and The Notorious B.I.G.

Alex Constantine
978-0922915-61-3
8½ × 5½
280 pages
$14.95

This book looks deeply into more than a dozen suspect deaths of rock stars and rappers, documenting how the radical voices of pop culture have been silenced. The connections between government, organized crime, and the music industry are examined in detail. Constantine writes passionately both about the music and the political power base that fears it, examines the continuities behind these losses, and offers compelling evidence that there may be more to these deaths than has been told.

Warning: Alex Constantine’s research may well upset the psychic equilibrium of the casual reader. Carefully documented articles examine the Realpolitik of contemporary America, including original material on: Electromagnetic and bio-telemetric mind control experimentation and torture on involuntary human subjects in America today and the use of cults by intelligence organizations as cover for child abuse, arms sales and mind-control projects.

VIRTUAL GOVERNMENT
CIA Mind Control Operations in America

Alex Constantine

Packing Inferno is the spectacularly written story of the ordeal of a Marine officer in battle and returning home. It is the struggle with a society resistant to understand the true nature of war. It is the fight with combat stress and an exploration into the process of recovery. It is the search for conscience, family, and ultimately for one's essential self. Here are the reflections of a man built by the Marine Corps, disassembled by war, and left with no guidance to rebuild himself.

Motherfucker is two separate Anglo-Saxon words — one sacred, one profane — locked together by constant usage like two pieces of wet soap. The Compleat Motherfucker examines and investigates the usage of both the offensive and celebratory word.

Edward is a professional mentalist who has worked the Magic Castle in Hollywood for over thirty years and is also on the Editorial Board of Skeptic magazine, where he has worked with other critical thinkers to reveal the methods of psychic scamsters. This entertaining book is at once confessional and instructional regarding human belief and those who exploit it.

Is "The Origin of Feces" a Darwinian concern? Perhaps not, but it is the title to the preface of this tongue-in-cheek and unexpectedly revealing exploration of human behavior by the webmaster behind the popular PoopReport.com.

"(T)his memoir offers an insider's look at a place that few people know anything about and fewer still have ever seen."
— Publishers Weekly

The Ministry of Truth is a window view of the gigantic 3D production of Kim Jong II, who wrote the nation's statistics and authored its film script.

$24.95

More than a cookbook, Preservation: The Art and Science of Canning, Fermentation and Dehydration demystifies the scientific concepts that inform the methods of food preservation in an easy to understand way. Taking Julia Child as her inspiration, certified Master Food Preserver Christina Ward has collected and translated both the scientific and experiential information that has long been the sole domain of academics and elite chefs. Christina has taught thousands of people the techniques of safe food preservation. Her popular classes have produced a new generation of savvy makers and artisanal food businesses.

In this book, she shares the results of her life-long research and passion for this culinary art form that has been sadly neglected in a "fast-food nation". Whether you are new to food preservation or an experienced fermenter, Preservation will be a valued resource in your kitchen.

Standardized Testing in America has a troubled history. Its agenda has long remained veiled behind “expert opinions” and “latest studies”. The future of American education stands in a long tradition of social engineering, data mining, pseudo-psychology, and dumbing down classroom strategies. Common Core promises great advances though its true benefits are monetary ones for software companies and partner politicians.

Craig Smith was good looking, charismatic, outgoing — a gifted musician whose songs were recorded by some of the biggest names in entertainment. His future success seemed assured, but the clean cut Craig Smith became the schizophrenic Maitreya Kali, a self-proclaimed psychedelic Messiah. Mike Stax spent fifteen years piecing together one of the most tragic stories of the 1960s.

Louis “Moondog” Hardin was one of New York’s most colorful eccentrics—a blind street performer, ’60s pop culture phenomenon and an influential and internationally respected composer. This lower priced revised edition excludes the first edition’s CD, but readers will have access to the same Moondog compilation with rare recordings via download. A documentary feature of this book is soon-to-be released.
Decades ago Alain Saury, a friend of Jean Cocteau and star of many films, anticipated the poisoning of our air, rivers and ocean, and mass extinction of life on the planet. In response the author left his fellow humans a practical manual regarding surviving the last days of our planet; how to forage, grow and live through a particularly devastating time.

“The source for all things oil... The first comprehensive reference book that focuses on the fixed oils from the plant world. Seeds, nuts, kernels, and fruiting bodies produce the oils of the botanical world. The oils from seeds are distinct from the aromatic essential oils. Both types of botanical oils are discussed and their differences are delineated.

This engaging, illustrated guidebook shows the reader the meaning and uses of fatty acids, omega oils, trans-fats, saturated and unsaturated oils for skin care, massage, cooking, and other ways to improve one’s health, both internally and externally.” — Complexion Revolution

Get Your Pitchfork On! provides the hard-learned nuts-and-bolts of rural living from city folk who were initially out of their depth. Practical and often hilarious, Get Your Pitchfork On! reads like a twenty-first century The Egg and I. Pitchfork also enters territory that other books avoid—straightforward advice about the social aspects of country living, from health care to schools to small-town politics.

PACIFIC OCEAN PARK
The Rise and Fall of L.A.’s Space Age Nautical Pleasure Pier
Christopher Merritt and Domenic Priore
Foreword by Brian Wilson
978-1-934170-52-6
11½ × 9
264 pages
$34.95

“Pacific Ocean Park, at the border of the Venice neighborhood of Los Angeles and Santa Monica, Calif., had rides dreamed up by Hollywood set designers that simulated trips to Mars, Africa, Elizabethan villages, Polynesia, pirate lairs and Neptune’s Kingdom. It opened in 1958, bled money from the beginning and lasted only a decade, as documented in a new book, Pacific Ocean Park: The Rise and Fall of Los Angeles’ Space-Age Nautical Pleasure Pier (Process Media). The authors, the pop culture historian Domenic Priore and the theme park designer Christopher Merritt, collected memorabilia and interviewed people who had worked on the park, which was razed in the 1970s.”
